

PROPERTY ASSESSMENT APPEAL BOARD

ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 23, 2021

The Property Assessment Appeal Board is pleased to announce that it has expanded the “Do I have a strong case” solution explorer platform to commercial property appeals. The “Do I have a strong case” platform is an interactive guide to help property owners learn about property assessment issues and prepare better evidence. The platform was initially developed for residential property owners and has recently been adapted to provide information for commercial property appeals.

“The Board is pleased to offer this informative and interactive guide for commercial property owners”, says Simmi K. Sandhu, Board Chair. “This is another step forward in the Board’s efforts to improve access to justice and to information on property assessments for self-represented parties.”

The Property Assessment Appeal Board is the second level of appeal for property assessments in the Province of BC and is committed to the fair and efficient resolution of property assessment appeals.
